Best place to take foodie visitors Rancho Pinot Grill

The second your gourmand-y guests walk into this shrine to food and wine, they'll know what state they're in. A beautiful saguaro skeleton rises up in the center of the white-linen-draped dining room, which is adorned with classy cowboy-desert decor. The atmosphere is casual-upscale, the service is impeccable and the one-page menu is inspired and ever-changing. And, who knows, maybe you'll see retired Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor like I did on a recent visit.
